Council to investigate Bay PD

By BRENT MACEY

The Bay St. Louis City Council Tuesday agreed to conduct a thorough investigation into the Bay St. Louis Police Department.

The action followed the release of report by the January term of the Hancock County Grand Jury last week which recommended the council, the Attorney General's office and other appropriate agencies look into the affairs of the department. Four councilmen agreed that the interviews with department personnel should be conducted behind closed doors.

Councilman Eugene voted against the investigation only because he feels the interviews with the department should be open to the public.

Councilman James Thriffiley requested the action be taken.

He noted he wanted the investigation to be conducted in private so "we won't compromise the authority."

"We owe it to ourselves, city employees and the community to conduct our own indepth investigation," he said.

Following the meeting, Thriffiley noted the investigation may also probe the records of Bay Police employees by use of a computer.

He noted he is approaching the investigation "totally impartially."

Couple, store clerk face charges

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

A Bay St. Louis couple and a convenience store clerk were scheduled to appear in court Wednesday in Bay St. Louis City Court, all facing grand larceny charges.

The three were charged in the theft of various items from a Little General Food Store at the corner of US-90 and deMontzun St. in that city.

Investigator Matt Karl of the Bay Police Department Wednesday said Marie and David Green, 19 and 23 respectively, of 427 Thomas St., and Constance Groot, 18, of Gulfport were all arrested and charged this week with grand larceny.

Groot was apparently stealing the Greens' various items from the store which included automotive oil and paper products, he stated.

Karl said Mike Plonski, store manager, began watching store and apparently saw a thief operating among various items. He then alerted the store manager who appeared to be stolen inventory items.

The investigator noted all three were released from Hancock County Jail in Bay St. Louis on $1,000 bond each.

BAYOU CADET THIEFS

Two Bay St. Louis men are in Hancock Jail facing multiple charges stemming from burglaries of a store, vehicle and two boats all at Bayou Cadet Marina.

Arrested are Gill Ward, 29, of 538 State St. charged with three counts of burglary and grand larceny; and Clarence Taylor, 25, of 524 Sycamore St. for the same charges and a parole violation.

Ronald A. Peterson, Hancock sheriff, Tuesday said Ward is being held under a $15,000 bond and no bail can be set for Taylor due to the alleged parole violation.

The sheriff said Ward was released from Parchman State Penitentiary three months ago.

He said a hearing is slated for the two at 6 p.m. Feb. 17 before Justice Court Judge Leo Klein.

About 2 a.m. today on US-90 Patrolmen John Wilkerson and Allen James of the Waveland Police Department stopped a pickup truck loaded with various items, Peterson explained.

"After a preliminary investigation the officers discovered the items in the truck had already been stolen from Bayou Cadet," he said.

A list of items includes eight sheets of oysters, some eight cases of beer, clothing, two automotive batteries, a television, chinaware, cookware, portable oil heater, lamp cables, a toy box, a radio, a radio, three battery chargers, three citizen band radios, three AM/FM radios, a tire and rim, and a CB antenna.

Peterson estimated the total value of the stolen items could be about $2,000. Investigators believe the two of the Hancock Department's interests in an ongoing investigation of the theft.

Trainees to Her Majesty were Miss Leslie Christine Chapman, Miss Elizabeth Anne Marie Weathers, Mrs. Shirley Robert Johnson, Dr. Thomas E. Morris Jr. and Mr. Mark A. Morris.

The Cheshire Cat with his flashing smile appeared and disappeared from above. The characters and props in this scene were done in fluorescent colors and lighted by black lights and soft spotlights.

Many colorful characters were presented, as the Queen of Hearts challenged Alice to a game of croquet and a game of chess. Among the characters appearing in this scene were the Queen and King of Hearts, the Queen of Flowers, a deck of cards, courtly people and chess pieces.

In the Garden of Live Flowers the maidens of the Royal Court were presented.

The maid portraying the delightful, dancing "Babes" was costumed in yellow satin trimmed in rhinestones and sequins. The next maid portraying the "Rocking Horse Fly" was costumed in pink and white.

The maid portraying the droll, jester-like "Mad Hatter" was costumed in purple and gold.

Due to the large number of characters for the entire production, the court maid portraying the representing the "Daredevils" was designed by Edward Scammon.

Municipal Separate School District Board of Trustees following a recommendation by Bay St. Louis Mayor Larry Bennett, Glover will take office in March and will replace Trustee Virginia Gex who has served on the board 10 years and whose second five year term will expire this month.

Pastor of new parish moving in tomorrow

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

The first pastor of a new north Hancock County Catholic parish named St. Matthew the Apostle is expected to move into living quarters tomorrow at Néacée Crossing.

Rev. George R. Kitchin was recently selected as pastor by Rev. Joseph L. Howze, bishop of the Biloxi Diocese which includes the county.

The parish was recently formed from the former Infant Jesus of Prague Mexican American Parish which Rev. Austin Walsh, St. Annunciation pastor, explained that Howze selected the new parish name from four submitted by the Prague Church Council.

"The bishop wanted a name which would be ecumenically sensitive. Infant Jesus of Prague is strictly a Catholic event and isn't even a popular devotion within our church anymore," he stated.

"A more important factor is that every parish must have a name honoring a feast day and the bishop wanted the parish named for an evangelical saint," Walsh explained.

St. Matthew was one of the 12 apostles who wrote several gospels in the Bible's New Testament.

The new parish was officially established Monday by a decree issued by Howze.

Walsh said Kitchin will temporarily reside in an efficiency-type apartment which is located in the St. Matthew Church complex in Néacée Crossing.

He reported the new pastor will begin conducting Masses this weekend.

Louis J. Breaux, president of the new St. Matthew Parish Council, Tuesday stated, "There are no plans right now to build a rectory for Kitchin."

"He knew it would be a little inconvenient to begin with, but the church office is designed so someone can live there," he said.

Breaux speculated a trailer might be moved in until a rectory is constructed, but emphasized no plans will be undertaken until parishioners know Kitchin's housing needs.

Kitchin will formally be installed by Howze at 10 a.m. Feb. 11, before a confirmation ceremony—an event which officially accepts young Catholics as adult members of the church. An invitation to friends and relatives of the new pastor, the bishop, was formally served by Franciscan Fathers since 1944. Annunciation Parish was established in 1944.

Sister Mary Richard, M.S.P.T. of Annunciation will continue serving St. Matthew with a religious education ministry.

Fr. Michael J. Greenwood, native son of St. Annunciation, will remain His parish's soon-to-be-stationed Kitchin, a former Methodist who converted to Catholicism before his birth.

Fr. Michael J. Greenwood currently serves as pastor of St. John the Baptist Catholic Church in Waveland.

Bits 'n pieces

One of our subscribers living in the Pearlington area brought a very important item to our attention this week.

He said he was on his way home Saturday evening and a trucker on Hwy. 604 was completely lost as he was trying to find where Hwy. 603 runs off US-90.

The trucker has an official map produced by the State of Mississippi and it did not show the intersection of US-90 and Hwy. 603.

Well, this subscriber, being the good citizen he is, told the trucker how to reach Hwy. 603 and a few days later stopped at the Mississippi Hospitality Station and collected two different official state maps and discovered the same thing as the lost trucker, no indication of the intersection of Hwy. 603 and US-90.

Both of the maps showed Hwy. 603 running from Hwy. 43 at the Cuevas Junction above Kilm to Hwy. 53 at Mcasine and that is all.

We just wonder if it is possible that the map makers do not realize Hwy. 603 starts at US-90 because signs indicate it is 603 and 43 at the intersection.

We have checked the recently published Hancock County Chamber of Commerce maps and they all indicate Hwy. 603 starting at US-90.

We feel it is a community service for persons to serve on juries and the Grand Jury.

The recent Grand Jury should be commended for its efforts in service to the county. Its members have shown examples of good citizenship.

However, one statement made by the Grand Jury in its report on tax collecting has really dumbfounded us and we are still trying to figure the reasoning.

Stating that the Cities of Bay St. Louis and Waveland (do not have qualified personnel or facilities to provide this service to the Public) is far off base, in our opinion.

Could the Grand Jury possibly have meant that by combining the tax collecting-assessing offices of Waveland and Bay St. Louis possibly a savings could be offered to the taxpayers?

We have dealt many years with Mrs. Claire Bourgeois, Clements and Mrs. Estelle Johnson and their staffs and have always found them to be very competent.

We just wonder how a group can criticize two operations in the county and yet not visit these operations first hand as a group and then blast them as being unqualified and without proper facilities.

The offices for collecting taxes in both municipalities seem to be adequate to us, even though they are on the bottom floor of two story buildings.

A citizen, in expressing his opinion this week about the Grand Jury's report on the Bay St. Louis and Waveland tax departments, said the group possibly should make an apology to the two departments and we are sure leaning that way ourselves.

There are also portions of the report which seem to be an expression of opinion and we do not believe this is at all in their charge.

As an example, with a broad non-specific attack on the press, the Grand Jury possibly exceeded its bounds.

An item of real interest to us in the Grand Jury report was the recommendation of the extension of the parking lot at Hancock General Hospital.

Our understanding on the parking lot at the hospital was that it should have been completed about six months ago, but as we all know it is still under study or something like that.

We do hope efforts are made soon to extend the parking lot at Hancock General, as we have mentioned several times before it is really needed.

Blood Bank chairman appeals for donations at Wednesday drawing

February 19, 1982

Dear Friend and Member:

The Hancock County Blood Bank will have its regular drawing on Wednesday, Feb. 10 from 2pm to 5pm at the American Legion Home, Post No. 125, Bay St. Louis.

Usually at each drawing time, our supply is critically low and since the previous drawing did not produce even the usual amount, our present blood supply is very low.

We know you fully understand the importance to the life and health of our community to have blood available at all times and we definitely need your help.

Will you please assist by requesting your members and employees, members of their families and friends, who are physically able and 17 years of age or older, to come in Wednesday afternoon, February 10th, and donate a unit of blood.

Please send this at your next meeting, post it on your bulletin board, or publish it in any bulletins before the blood drawing, and make a personal appeal for this particular drawing.

Your assistance in any way at your command to make every effort to make this drawing a success, and productive in units donated. It will not only be appreciated but very essential to those who will need this blood.

Sincerely
John D. Rutherford Jr.

Hancock County Blood Bank

Reader feels kindergarten programs are better investment than jails

Feb. 19, 1982

The Editor:

For time untold, like many other caring people, I have favored education to the fullest.

Today our great governor is beating his brain out to accomplish a needed but neglected goal in our educational system.

Thirty odd times in the last 40 years — two generations — this issue has been presented to our legislators, but for admitted lack of pushy public concern the kindergarten issue has died, incognito.

Several days ago a critic from Meridian came forth in another local newspaper and openly blasted Governor Winter for wanting to spend money on kindergartens — our children — instead of spending it to build new jail-detention centers.

If he is not a copout, and if he has children, he must be financially able to send them to private kindergartens, so why bother about the less fortunate.

Maybe his "personal" interest in our children is valid, but not necessarily worthy.

Instead of spending a few million dollars today to see tomorrow's leaders off to a decent and honorable start, while we share and enjoy their love and companionship through life, we can build new jails, luxurious detention centers for them to occupy eight to 10 years in, and incur greater monetary cost, plus their heartaches, deprivations, despair, and physical pain.

Can anyone describe the principles of any one having so little care for humanity?

Actions and lack of concern that I have seen during a lifetime leaves no doubt in my mind that had we had better parents, we would have much better teenagers today.

There is no doubt that a lot of caring teenagers have been forced from uncaring homes.

Sure we do have some willful teenagers. Had you ever thought that maybe you were one?

Since we are the only state that has no public kindergarten program, since Mississippi ranks 47 in educational expenditures, since Mississippi had the highest dropout percentage in the 79-80 public school session — nearly 15,000 students — and since psychologists tell us that by age 6, 60 percent of one's learning patterns are achieved, since that adds up to the fact a child entering school after six has only 40 percent of his learning pattern left, that is sure to add to the number of dropouts if only because this child that has been deprived of over half of his or her learning to catch up to the point of no return at the top of the class every day.

There is only one solution in his mind — DROP OUT.

Many of our children have been at the tail end of the spelling B line for too long. Let's do what needs to be given them a chance to infiltrate this long line.

Recent news of that there is a 24 percent return on money invested in preschool programs shows me any other kind of legitimate investment that yields that kind of return.

Public kindergartens will eliminate detention programs.

Let's not let the idea of the older teenagers to go to the cold wall or sit in jail for the rest of their lives.

It has been a wonderful program but its primary goal was to provide educational benefits.

Now that any qualified Head Start teacher is two times harder to hire than ever, we must do something else.

Opening The Door To Your Government

By Jere Nash

"A popular government without popular information, or the means of acquiring it, is but a prologue to a farce or tragedy, or perhaps both..."

James Madison

Secrecy is the most convenient means of keeping power out of the hands of the people. If citizens are to understand and have confidence in their government, they must be allowed to observe, participate in, and scrutinize the actions of their public officials and employees.

Only in Mississippi can you be denied the right to examine records of your government, for example, the financial and budgetary documents of your local school board. But Mississippi's state and local government is well known for its secrecy. Only last year did the Legislature pass an effective open meetings law that requires public bodies such as city councils, boards of supervisors, and school boards to meet in the open when conducting the public's business. But the Legislature has resisted any similar, equally important and necessary public records law.

Why a Public Records Law is Needed

Mississippians should also have access to the records and documents of their government. That access should be protected by a statewide law that protects the right of citizens to inspect and copy records unless the disclosure would violate the privacy rights of individuals. Forty-nine states have such a law. Mississippi is the only state in the country without a public records law.

A law is needed to define exactly which documents are open to the public, to establish standard procedures for obtaining access to those documents, and to provide the necessary enforcement mechanism.

Because there are no standard guidelines in Mississippi law for public officials to use or abide by in releasing records, courts can take little action to force an agency to disclose the information according to any standardized procedures. Each case has to be handled on its own, which is costly to citizens and to the state and local governments. The Legislature should assume the responsibility for defining in the statutes those records that are confidential and those that are subject to public scrutiny.

Action in the Legislature

For the last two years, the Legislature has killed attempts to enact public records legislation. Specifically, in 1980 and in 1981, the House of Representatives, employing parliamentary maneuvering, voted to kill these bills by not allowing them to come up for a vote (it's their way of killing bills without having to go on record in doing so).

This year, Sen. Rick Lambert, of Hatfieldburg, has introduced Senate Bill 1493, along with 22 other co-sponsors in the Senate, that would enact a public records law in Mississippi. If the Senate passes the measure, the House will have another opportunity to act on the legislation later in the session. The proponents of public records hope that Senate passage would provide some incentive for the House to act on this reform.

What a Records Law Would Do

A section of the proposed legislation would define public records and create the right of citizens to inspect and copy those records. Another section would exempt from disclosure certain types of records, such as: tax returns, personal and confidential records of individuals, employment applications, trade and copyright secrets, law enforcement and investigative records, and certain legal documents.

Standard procedures for obtaining a public record would be established requiring a public body to respond to a request within seven days. Another section would set out the process for citizens to use if denied a request and it would provide an easy-to-use legal procedure to enforce the law.

Are You Affected?

State and local governments in our state make countless decisions that affect our daily lives in fundamental ways — decisions regarding taxes, health, and environment, for example. All too often, secrecy is used to serve special or personal interests or to escape from accountability. Deprived of necessary information, citizens cannot hold their officials accountable for their actions, and officials then feel little pressure or responsibility to respond to the needs of citizens.

The preamble to California's Law succinctly states the case for an open government: "The people of this State do not yield their sovereignty to the agencies which serve them. The people, in delegating authority, do not give their public servants the right to decide what is good for the people to know and what is not good for them to know. The people insist on remaining informed so they may retain control over the instruments they have created."

Jere Nash is State Director for Common Cause in Mississippi, a non-partisan citizens' lobbying organization.

You're being ripped off for more than $20 each year.

By shoplifters.

Last year shoplifters stole between $4 and $5 billion worth of merchandise. That's like stealing over $20 from each American.

Shoplifting costs stores - and you - more than merchandise. Prices go up to cover the losses incurred by shoplifting. Dollars spent for special security devices, extra guards, insurance, alarm systems and legal counsel are eventually absorbed by you, the consumer. Stores that do stop thieves do it with the help of law officers who lose countless manhours handling shoplifters. And you, the taxpayer, must foot the bill for prosecuting shoplifters through an already overcrowded court system. How can you help stop this ripoff? By being concerned. And informed. By urging your local authorities to crack down on shoplifters. And by reporting any shoplifting activity when you see it.

Everyone pays for shoplifting.

Beach Road repair work to be advertised

By BRENT MACEY

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors Monday approved advertising for bids to repair Beach Boulevard.

Work is expected to begin some time in March and take some 150 days to complete.

Larry Seal, project engineer of Broadway and Seal Engineering Firm in Hattiesburg, noted the county only has some $20,000 available for the project through a federal grant obtained through the Bureau of Marine Resources in Long Beach.

With that money, and perhaps additional money from the City of Bay St. Louis and Waveland, renovation will be made on those areas of the road which need it the most.

Exactly how many miles of road can be repaired will not be able to be determined until the bids are accepted and the total amount of money available is known, Seal said.

He warned the board that bids on the job may exceed the amount of money available.

For that reason he noted the county will have to negotiate with firms submitting bids to determine what type of work will be given a priority and also to insure that all the money is not spent on just one phase of the project.

Rip-rap acquired from tearing up old sections of the road will not be able to be used to extend a breakwater at the end of the American Legion Pier in Bay St. Louis.

At a previous meeting the supervisors agreed the rip-rap would be used for this purpose, but Monday Seal told the supervisors that a United States Army Corps of Engineers construction permit will not allow the breakwater to be extended.

Seal said the permit only allowed construction of the current pier.

"We could still do it (extend the breakwater) but we would have to get a permit," Seal said. "It's up to you."

The board agreed it would be easier to haul the rip-rap to a storage area in Beat 3.

In other business the board heard from members of the Kiln Water and Fire District, representatives of Farmers Home Association and others who announced finalization of a $120,000 FmHA bond for phase two of the district's water project.

Phase one of the project was completed last year and brought water service and fire protection to some to some 250 customers in Kiln.

The bond finalized Friday will be combined with a $30,000 grant and $7,000 left over from phase one of the project to complete construction of a water pump and extend some 11 miles of water main to residents of the Rocky Hill Community and Firetower Road.

Also during the meeting, the supervisors agreed to affiliate with the Waveland Wastewater Authority.

The action followed a written request from Charles Blalock, executive director of the Mississippi Department of Natural Resources, who informed supervisors via letter that his office will entertain the concept of individual countywide authorities in place of a tri-county wastewater district.

The Waveland Authority was accepted by the state legislature two years ago and until recently, the department attempted to discourage any coastal communities from not joining a three county plan.

Also Monday, the board approved a $1,000 donation to the Tiger Pride Band and agreed they might possibly donate another $1,000 in May if funds are available.

The band will be representing the state in an April Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D.C.

DOUSING THE FLAMES — The Bay St. Louis fire department was requested to burn the former home of Buddy Nichols following the popular shoe shiner's recent death. Nichols' house, on Union Street near the 100 Men's Club, burned so rapidly Saturday that firefighters, above, had to keep hoses running constantly to cool the Men's Club building, left, to prevent it from igniting. The house burned to the ground in just over an hour and drew some 20 curious spectators to the scene. (Staff photo by Brent Macey)

VA Questions

Q. What is the maximum amount of Servicemen's Group Life Insurance that may be purchased?

A. Effecting Oct. 1, 1981, the amount is $35,000 worth of insurance.

Q. I have just retired after 20 years in the Navy. Do I still have 10 years from my date of discharge to use my GI Bill education benefits?

A. No, under the present GI Bill, education benefits for all veterans expire on Dec. 31, 1989. The last veterans who had the full 10-year period are those who are separated from active-duty prior to Jan. 1, 1980.

Q. I'm a service-connected disabled veteran and need to know the maximum amount VA will pay toward the purchase of an automobile.

A. If you qualify for the automobile benefit, the maximum amount is $14,400, effective Oct. 1, 1981. You should contact the nearest VA office to find out if you're eligible.

Q. My GI Bill education assistance unfortunately does not cover all of my education expenses. Does VA offer any other financial assistance?

A. Yes, you should ask about the Work-Study program. This is a good source of additional income for veterans enrolled in school on a full-time basis. Check with your school's veterans affairs office or the nearest VA regional office for details.

Q. When are dividends paid on participating National Service Life Insurance policies?

A. Dividends are normally paid on the anniversary date of the insurance policy.

CREDIT RATING TIPS

Having a good credit rating is important and there are several ways to establish and maintain your own credit rating.

If you move every few years, it is important to choose furnishings that are attractive, comfortable, and that can be easily moved.

Also consider furnishings that can be used in various situations and those which have a dual purpose. For example, a sofa which will fit in a living room may require a shuffling of furniture. Also, sofa beds can make a living room serve as that extra bedroom which is needed occasionally.

Many couples with imagination and little money do a good job of stretching their budget by shopping for used furniture at auctions and secondhand stores. If you understand good design and furniture construction, you will be able to find interesting pieces made of better woods and better construction than would be possible to purchase alone.

Generally, however, the proportion of money spent for furnishings in relation to income is often about one-half of one year's income or one-fourth the value of the house.

For more families, the amount allowed for the living room (den or family room) ranges from 30 percent to 40 percent of the furnishing budget. The dining room may be given 15 to 20 percent; the master bedroom from 15 to 20 percent; a child's bedroom from 10 to 15 percent; and a third bedroom or guest room 10 to 15 percent.

Some authorities on family finance advise that it is desirable to have at least one-fourth of the total furnishing budget in case before furnishing a first home.

Your first purchases may include major items that are considered very necessary—a bed, mattress and box springs, sofa or some type of living room seating etc., with these basics you can fill in with less expensive items that you will use only until better furnishings can be fitted into your spending plan.

Buy these basic pieces, however, for less for several years at least. You will want to add to these rather than replace them as you are able.

Today you can't be too sure of anything. But there's one thing you can be sure of—U.S. Savings Bonds. They are safe and dependable. They have a guaranteed interest rate.

They will be repaid at maturity, never make a down payment, never make a withdrawal, and will be listed by your name under your account number.

Apply for a single-purpose credit card (e.g., department store, gasoline), even if you initially need a co-signer.

Later you can make a change and have the account in your own name.

Apply for a checking account in your own name. If you are married, have a joint account with your husband.

You don't necessarily have to use it, but the fact that you have been accepted will be recorded in your credit file and will be to your advantage if you later need other types of credit.

Apply for a ready check or overdraft account with your bank in your own name. You don't necessarily have to use it, but the fact that you have been accepted will be recorded in your credit file and will be to your advantage if you later need other types of credit.

1982 Miss USA Pageant will involve local schoolgirls

By RANDY PONDER

Local girls between the ages of 8 and 12 have an opportunity to take an active part in the 1982 Miss USA Pageant scheduled May 13 at the Mississippi Coast Coliseum.

The "little sister" program was announced by Harold L. Glasser, president of Miss Universe, Inc., at a recent press conference at the Coliseum in Biloxi.

Each of the 51 Miss USA contestants will be assigned a little sister when they begin arriving on the Coast April 23.

The little sisters will provide the contestants with family type companionship and will participate in special activities including photo and luncheon events.

Glasser explained that the program is not at all exploitative, but rather an opportunity for local youngsters to get a rare behind the scenes look at the nationally televised event.

"I have a feeling that both the little sisters and our delegates are going to get a great deal of pleasure and this program will not end on May 13, but will continue for years, and perhaps, even for lifetimes," Mr. Glasser added.

Interested youngsters will be asked to write a letter on why they would like to be chosen a little sister to one of the Miss USA delegates. The letters will be judged by a local committee and the 51 winners will be announced at a press conference a few weeks prior to the formal start of Pageant activities.

All local school girls between the ages of 8 and 12 are eligible to apply for the program.

Further information about the little sister program is available through the Miss USA Pageant office, 333-0311, at the Mississippi Coast Coliseum, headed by Gwen Ward.

Glasser also announced that

Mrs. Virginia Wagner of Bay

St. Louis will once again be chaperon chairperson of the

Miss USA contestants. She has held that position for each of the four years the Pageant has been on the Coast.

CROSS-COUNTRY RIDE—Riding in driving rain on his one-eyed mule Mary eastward along US-90 Monday in Bay St. Louis, as a dog follows, is Kirby Schenely, 25, of Downey, Calif. Schenely began his cross-country ride seven horses ago on Nov. 15 in Los Angeles, Calif., in an effort to raise $25,000 to build a retarded children's school in South Korea. The marathon rider said he plans to end his trek in Miami, Fla., in March 1. He noted he recently switched to mule transportation because the animal travels about 10 miles more per day as compared to horses which he said travel 30 to 40 miles daily. The rider said one person has pledged $100,000 if he completes cross-country ride and contributions may be sent to a trust fund titled Save the Children—Korea Community Bank, Downey, Calif. 90241. He explains he plans to write a book and video tape about his travels. In addition, singer John Denver is considering to release a tune about the trip. Schenely added that the dog, which has no name, recently began following the rider. (Staff photo by Wayne Ducomb Jr.)

Seedlings offered to mark Tree Planting Week, Arbor Day

The Hancock County Soil and Water Conservation District will be observing Tree Planting Week and Arbor Day by providing free hardwood and pine tree seedlings.

District Commissioner R.D. Shaw Sr. said cherrybark oak, sycamore, bald cypress and slash pine trees will be available Feb. 10 through 12 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

"There is a limited number of trees so only a mixture of 10 hardwoods and 10 pine will be given to each person," he said, noting the trees are provided by the district and Mississippi

Forestry Commission.

This is Mississippi's eighth annual Statewide Tree Planting Week. Hancock County will join other Mississippians in acknowledging the many contributions trees make to their daily lives," Shaw pointed out.

Benefits from Mississippi's forest and wood products are essential to the economic, recreational, and environmental needs of all, stated Shaw. Mississippi is blessed with abundant forests; more than half of the state's land area is in trees.

Tree Planting Week is a good time for Hancock County landowners to check reforestation needs on their land and make plans for a tree planting program that will benefit them in the future," he continued.

For information on Tree Planting Week and Arbor Day, contact the Mississippi Forestry Commission at 467-4728 or the Hancock County Conservation District Office at Colonial Plaza No. 7, US-90, Bay St. Louis, or call 467-5108.

Auxiliary sponsoring Dental Health Month

"Smile America! And we'll smile back at you!" is the theme for the February observance of National Children's Dental Health Month.

Sponsored by the American Dental Association, the event focuses attention on the important to care for primary teeth as for permanent teeth. Primary teeth are needed for chewing, proper speech, appearance, and as guides for permanent teeth. Plus, decayed teeth can ultimately abscess if not treated and can cause much pain and swelling.

portance of the prevention of dental disease.

The 1982 theme encourages prevention as the key to good dental health, according to Mrs. W. H. Murdoch Jr., of Gulfport, the Fifth District Dental Auxiliary's education chairman.

But, what to do? If it is both possible and realistic for a person's natural teeth to last a lifetime if proper care is taken. But, that "Proper Care" must begin in childhood and be maintained throughout life.

As soon as teeth erupt in a child's mouth, begin caring for them. After each meal, wrap a clean, soft cloth around a finger and rub the infant's teeth and gums. As more teeth erupt, begin using a toothbrush and fluoride toothpaste.

It is recommended that a child stop taking a bottle between 10 and 12 months of age and should not take any fluids containing sugar from the baby bottle.

Fluoride treatments, commonly called "smile treatments" or "bathing" bottles, can reduce tooth decay by 50 percent.

Children should brush their teeth twice a day, morning and night.

Proper oral hygiene habits must be followed throughout life. Brushing with a soft bristled toothbrush, use of fluoride toothpaste, and daily flossing are recommended for good dental care.

Try to brush at least twice a day. Be sure to go to sleep with a clean mouth. Ideally, it is recommended that teeth be brushed after each meal or snack.

A primary goal in brushing and flossing is removal of plaque and food particles.

Toothbrushing removes plaque and food particles from the outer, lower and upper surfaces of the teeth. Flossing removes food particles from the teeth and under the gumline. Both are essential for proper care.

Fluoride treatments and dental fluoride tablets are visible film containing harmful bacteria. Some of the bacteria in plaque combine with sugar to form acids. These acids attack the enamel of the teeth with decay being the eventual result.

Through proper brushing and flossing, these acids are removed from the teeth, thus controlling the elimination of as many bacteria as possible.

It is equally important in controlling decay. Once a cavity is formed, it is eaten an acid attack begins which can last up to 30 minutes.

Remember, the bacteria in plaque which everyone has react with sugar to form acids. Cutting down on sugar intake will reduce the amount of time that the decay-producing acid is able to eat away at the tooth.

According to Juliette Ladet, ticket chairman, a few tickets will still available for the ball to be purchased at Ladet's Grocery, Clément.

Johnston nabs first ring victory

Members of a reorganized Bay-Kill-Waveland Boxing Club participated in three bouts in Saucier Saturday night, with Cory Johnston scoring a lone victory for the group.

Johnston scored a unanimous decision over Mike Foles of Hattiesburg for his first ring victory.

Gulfport Boxing Club's Wayne Karl of Waveland defeated BKW's Tony Guerrero of Bay St. Louis in three rounds.

Pearlington's Eddie Bennett, also fighting with the Gulfport Boxing Club, took a close, three-round decision over Tommy Yarbrough of BKW.

GBC's David Bennett, also of Pearlington, lost to Charles Miles of Mobile, Ala., in another close contest.

BKW's Archie Thomas and Daryl Antoine were unable to secure matches in Saucier. Gulfport's Chuck Karl was out of action last week due to illness.

Bay-Kill-Waveland and Gulfport boxers are expected to participate in a Friday night event sponsored by the Rebel Boxing Club in Lyman. In addition, Gulfport is hosting a 20-bout match in Mississippi City Saturday evening.

Eligible boxers from both groups will be signed to matches in the regional Golden Gloves tournament in Hattiesburg Feb. 12-14.

The BKC boxers have resumed workouts at their training facility behind the Disabled American Veterans Hall, 111 Main St., Bay St. Louis under the direction of head coach Nick Slade.

Assistant BKW coaches are E.C. Johnston and J.L. Guerrero. Sandi Guerrero is serving as club secretary and Barbara Johnston is treasurer.

Johnston said the club is currently engaged in a fund-raising effort to support its members in the upcoming Golden Gloves matches on the USM campus, and has issued an appeal for assistance to local businesses, officials and individuals.

State to sponsor table tennis tourney

The 1982 State of Mississippi Table Tennis Championships will be held Feb. 27 at Mississippi State University.

The tournament, an annual event since 1974, is open to all Mississippi residents, students in Mississippi colleges and universities, and persons stationed at military bases in the state. Entry deadline is 5 p.m., Feb. 25.

"The tournament provides advanced players, as well as beginners, the opportunity to participate in a competitive situation with players of their own level," said Julian Wright, assistant director of recreation and intramural sports at MSU. "It is a great way to meet people," he added. Tournament coordinator said the singles competition will involve four levels of play: the novice event for beginners, Classes B and A for more experienced players, and the championship for advanced and Mississippi State University.

In addition, there will be women's singles, senior singles, and mixed doubles events.

Trophies will be awarded for first and second place in all events, and for third and fourth place in championship and doubles are included.

For complete information and entry forms, contact Wright at 325-2150 or Joe Ferguson at 325-2006, or write to Wright at Drawer FC, Mississippi State, Miss. 39762.

Bulldogs gnaw Wildcats

Pearl River College's Wildcats blew a 10 point second half lead in Poplarville Saturday night resulting in a 64-63 loss to the Gulf Coast Bulldogs.

The second half downfall kept the Wildcats from tying the Bulldogs for the tie in the south division. The Gulf Coast Dogs are now 9-1 in division play while the Cats are 7-3.

The 7-3 mark is still good enough for second place in the south. Overall, the Wildcats are 15-5 with four games remaining in regular season play.

Early in the second half the Wildcats were up 31-21 and were easily in control. However during the next five minutes, the Wildcats murdered only one basket while the Dogs raced in the contest. At 35, with 1:15 remaining in the game.

After another five minutes the game was still tied at 40. The Dogs had the ball the clock ran out the last time the team could get close. Methodically the Bulldogs pulled to 50 and the Dogs went for the kill. The Dogs failed and the Dogs had to settle for another loss to end the regular season.

Philip Bernard had 14 points for the Wildcats and team mate Dennis Brown chipped in 10. Four Bulldog players were in double figures.

In other games Saturday the Wildcats defeated Ole Miss 71-68. Home encounters with Co-Lin and UIC are on tap for Sunday.

Former Pirate career shoots for TV career

"We will be back to our game after the half-time so why not just let's go to the NFL Today with Irv Cross and Robin Roberts."

(For junior forward Robin Roberts at Southeastern Louisiana University, this scenario is just a dream, but she has worked on it to make it reality.)

But Roberts, a 5-foot-10 player from Pass Christian, should have aspirations for an electronic broadcasting career.

She is firmly following in the family tradition. Her older sister in Sally Ann Roberts, a news reporter for television station WWL-TV, Channel 4, New Orleans.

While Roberts has had experience as an unseen voice on the radio airwaves, she hopes to become an on-camera personality in the future. "I don't mind radio but I prefer TV. It seems to be the media of the future. My sister, of course, influences me and she seems to feel there are more opportunities in TV."

Although the TV opportunities may be in the future, Roberts is making the best use of her current opportunities, both on and off the basketball court.

On the court she is the second leading rebounder with 10.6 average, after 15 games and is the second leading scorer with 10.5 points (a 13.0 average).

Only 6-foot-3 senior center

Janice Thomas has more points and rebounds than Roberts (20.5 points for a 17.6 average and 10.5 rebounds for a 11.0 average).

Off the court Roberts has spent her time learning the techniques of radio broadcasting with reports on the Hammond City Council, and other news stories. Roberts credits News Director Mary

Piroko with being one of the main teachers of her craft.

"I have learned so much from her and her advice," Roberts said. "When I first came here she told me that needed to be more aggressive and get mean on the air. She said I was too nice. Funny thing is that is the same thing Coach Bryant (head SLU women's basketball coach) and Coach Ace Bryant (softball) say."

Roberts' summer job with the radio station gave her confidence in covering hard news stories she would prefer to switch eventually to sports.

"I covered the city council meetings and I was not that interested in taxes and organizations. If I were covering sports I would be more interested and have a better background." Roberts feels when she practices her craft with fellow teammates Roberts admits that she sometimes holds mock interviews. "I will be kidding around with the players and ask them different questions. I hope next year that I will be able to cover more sports, maybe even some Bay Lions and volleyball teams."

Roberts got the job at the local station through a want ad in the local paper and a timely phone call from station manager Tommy Chauvin.

I saw the notice in the paper last May," Roberts said of her entry into broadcasting. "While going to the interview, Kevin McCabe (a speech instructor at SLU whom Roberts had as a teacher) was getting a phone call from Tommy Chauvin asking him if he knew anybody who might be interested in the job. Mr. Mc-Cabe was nice enough to mention my name."

After finishing her undergraduate work at SLU, where she is minoring in speech, Roberts plans to attend graduate school before seeking work hopefully in the Gulf Coast or the New Orleans area. Her ultimate goal is to be part of a sports team for a national network.

"Who knows, maybe I will be the next Jane Kennedy,"

Roberts laughingly replied

when asked about her future ambitions.

Tree Planting Week

Tree Planting Week will be celebrated in Mississippi Feb. 8-12.

Celebrated in conjunction with Arbor Day on Friday, Feb. 12, Tree Planting Week is sponsored statewide by the Mississippi Association of Conservation Districts in cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service, Mississippi Forestry Commission and Soil Conservation Service offices.

According to Rand D. Riedrich, county forester in Hancock, the primary purpose of the annual celebration is to develop a keener awareness among both citizens and adults of the economic and environmental importance of trees in the state.

Riedrich said several tree planting ceremonies will be held in the county but the main thrust of the week's celebration will be in connection with school activities.

He noted that any school group or individual desiring information or assistance in conducting tree planting ceremonies may contact the local Mississippi Forestry Commission or Soil Conservation Service office.

Last year during Tree Planting week more than half a million trees were distributed for planting in homesites, school grounds, parks, rookeries, cemeteries and other such places.

Some 60,000 students at 130 schools participated in tree planting ceremonies.

Sugar Ray Leonard did just begin his career and he looked like he normally boyish face was blushed and swollen. Most disturbing was his left eye, darkened in color and almost completely shut. Only victory made the pain a little more bearable.

"Daddy, why do you keep on fighting?" said eight-year-old Ray Leonard Jr., nearly as famous as his father from their 7UP commercial. "Why don't you try another sport? Like basketball."

Only minutes before Ray Jr. had watched from outside on the grounds of Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas, his dad unified boxing's welterweight titles by stopping Thomas "Hit Man" Hearns in the 14th round. It was a fight that more than a few boxing experts put on a level with such classic matchups as Ali-Frazier, Tunney-Dempsey and Robinson-Lamotta.

Which is one reason why Sugar Ray is not quite ready to turn in his 10-pounds gloves for a baseball bat. As one of the world's most popular boxers, he has such craftsmen as Plácido Domingo, Aaron Pryor, Willie Nelson, and Marvin Gaye at the champion whatever weight class he is in the manufacturing business.

In the ring against Hearns, he fought with a substantial heart and reached advantage and opportunity many times. He did show above both tremendous boxing ability and raw courage. It was all in the above of good taste.

After the match was history. I knew he was testing and I hadn't been throwing many punches. I thought it from the start. I thought the

NORDA dedicates building program second phase

In recent NSTL ceremonies, the Ocean Measurements Program wing was dedicated at the west end of Building 106, NORDA's Commanding Officer's wing. The ceremony included the cutting of a ceremonial red ribbon symbolically marking official opening of a 6,200 square foot development. System simulation and display, and data analysis development, are the main offices and research facilities dedicated to supporting NORDA's Ocean Measurements Program.

The primary goal of the OMP wing is the second phase of a three-part construction program aimed at fulfilling the physical space scales ranging from ten and facilities requirement meters to thousands of meters envisioned for NORDA when it was established at NSTL in 1976.

Methods of measuring, analyzing and displaying data on this variability are being square root addition developed at NORDA.

The new $500,000 wing, completed in seven months, will be occupied by the 15-member staff Oceanography programs.

The third phase is scheduled Branch of NORDA's to be a 62,100 square foot Oceanography Division's separate laboratory building which is the NORDA branch. A design contract has been primarily concerned with awarded for that facility and making the ocean construction is expected to measurements and analyzing begin this year.

Grand Jury issues report

CIRCUIT COURT OF
HANCOCK COUNTY
MISSISSIPPI
JANUARY, 1982 TERM

HONORABLE

LESLIE B. GRANT
CIRCUIT JUDGE PRESIDING:

We, the Grand Jury, of January 1982 term of the Court having been selected, sworn and charged, submit the following final report:

We were empaneled January 11, 1982 and have considered 92 cases of which we returned 72 bills, 14 no bills, struck 2 from the docket, left 2 pending to be passed to the next Grand Jury and referred 2 to other courts.

The Grand Jury recommends that the July, 1982 Grand Jury be furnished copies of this report and time for familiarization with the "Handbook for Grand Jurors" as their first order of business. We further urge that they closely review our specific recommendations and repeat accomplishments. County Supervisors and Administrations of the Cities of Bay St. Louis and Waveland are to be furnished copies of this report as well as U.S. Senators Cochran and Stennis, also Congressman Lett, State Senator Smith, and Representative Compreta, and specifically the State Health Department, The Attorney General, The Law Enforcement Administration and The Director of Public Safety in the state of Mississippi.

SHERIFF'S OFFICE AND JAIL

The Grand Jury wishes to compliment Sheriff Ronnie Peterson for his outstanding performance of duty as Chief Law Enforcement Officer of Hancock County.

We have visited the County Jail and Sheriff's Office. The facility is totally adequate and does not meet the minimum prescribed standards of Federal Law.

Therefore, we make our strongest recommendation that the County Board of Supervisors present a bond issue to a responsible voting citizenry for approval at the next election whether general or special.

The Board of Supervisors present public forum in order that the voting citizenry will know the present conditions of our jail before the loss of life, property, or law suit in which a federal court may step in and assume the direct operation of our jail. It is evident that every effort is being made to keep the jail neat and sanitary as possible under the present adverse condition.

Immediate action should be taken to build an Emergency fire exit ramp from the second floor of the jail opening to outside of the building.

The operating budget for the Sheriff's Office at present is approximately $330 thousand dollars. We recommend a $50 thousand increase in the 1962 budget and that this money be apportioned to increase in salary for the fourteen employees of the Sheriff's Office.

We wish to thank Investigator Alvin Ladner for providing the Grand Jury with information material describing the drugs most in use, how to detect them, some of the causes of drug abuse and some of the steps that can be taken to combat them particularly among the youth.

It is evident that the drug abuse program is one that is undoubtedly one that will continue to occupy many man hours of concern.

The cases were well prepared and presented in detail to the Grand Jury by Investigators Alvin Ladner and Delbert Seay.

The Grand Jury recommends that Mr. J. P. Compreta and Mr. Martin Smith take the necessary action in the legislature to introduce a bill to remove funding of the Sheriff's Office from the power of the Board of Supervisors and place it under the authority of the Attorney General of the State of Mississippi. We further recommend that a mileage be established by the State for direct support of the Sheriff's department throughout the State of Mississippi.

The Grand Jury requests that a copy of this report be furnished to Mr. J. P. Compreta and Mr. Martin Smith. We request a written reply to the next Grand Jury on the above recommendations.

CHANCERY CLERKS' OFFICE

Mr. Mike Neceal, Chancery Clerk, made a general appearance before the Grand Jury and gave an oral report. He reported that a computer had been purchased by the Board of Supervisors and will be "delivered" in the near future.

The Grand Jury sympathizes with Mr. Neceal's problems regarding lack of space for storing records. We recommend that more space be found for these very important records.

We recommend that Mr. Neceal continue having county records put on microfilm, having them stored in the Archive's vault in Jackson at no cost to the County. We commend him and his staff for performing in an outstanding manner.

TAX ASSESSOR COLLECTOR

The Grand Jury heard Mr. Edward Murtagh, the Hancock County Tax Assessor and Collector, regarding his responsibilities and in particular, the current property re-appraisal.

The Grand Jury commends Mr. Murtagh for instituting the "In House" method of re-appraisal, thus saving the county much money and utilizing local help. Mr. Murtagh advised this should be completed within two years.

The Grand Jury wishes Mr. Murtagh to continue his committee small operations and shall take a statement to the appropriate Grand Jury which will then be submitted to the Board of Supervisors.

RELINE PARK

Mr. Mike Ladner, Park Ranger, advised the Grand Jury that the park is in good condition.

GRAND JURY REPORT

We must be awarded, not given, a new day or which is the then, a day.

YOUTH COURT

A report was presented by Mr. Michael Haas, to the Grand Jury concerning the Youth Court. It seems that there is a problem in the department. It is recommended by the Grand Jury that the county should set up a system for better control of the financial aspect. The receipts and disbursements should be given by several individuals, therefore, one person would not have control. An audit should be done periodically by an independent firm and be reported to the Board of Supervisors, at least once a year.

We, the members of the Grand Jury, recommend that the applicants be screened by the Youth Court Administrator and referred to the State with his recommendations for acceptance.

HANCOCK COUNTY ELDERLY HOME

Mr. Trickey gave us the tour of the Hancock County Elderly Home. The overall condition of the home is neat, clean, and very friendly.

We highly recommend that a dishwasher be installed immediately; there is room for one in the kitchen. The dishwasher is necessary for sterilization purposes.

We also recommend that some or all of the floors be refinished due to some dated areas. This is a definite tripping hazard and should be corrected.

HANCOCK GENERAL HOSPITAL

Following a tour led by Mr. Phil Langston, Administrator, we, the Grand Jury, find the general condition of the hospital to be neat and clean, but there is still a need for additional storage space.

We recommend a metal building be constructed at the rear of the hospital for the purpose of storage of supplies and equipment.

We recommend the area between the hospital and the Health Center be paved and marked for parking. It should also be lighted for security.

Boxes of supplies are being stored on the floor in the kitchen storage area. These supplies should be unpacked and placed on shelving area within 24 hours after receipt.

Several patients have stated the food is good, but not hot enough when served.

We also recommend that all electrical outlets in the kitchen area be checked for possible hazards.

We commend the staff on redecorating the hospital rooms. This should be maintained on a regular basis.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT

Mr. Pope led the Grand Jury on a tour of this clinic. The entire facility is inadequate for the services that are required to be performed.

1. There are still no rest rooms or water cooler available in the waiting room. This is mostly due to no water connections.

2. Offices and halls are overcrowded with files and boxes.

3. Inadequate space for interviewing and treating of patients.

The Grand Jury recommends the size of the building be doubled. That immediate

for your budget!

At Jimmy's, we don't just talk about low prices, we GUARANTEE them. Look for the PRICE SLICER or BONUS BUY symbol when you shop. It means that we've taken advantage of a manufacturer's discount or a supplier's special deal, and we're passing the savings on to you! These special low prices will stay in effect through the GUARANTEE date even if your supplier increases the price.
